Reign of Terror in the South.

A gentleman who left Memphis, Tenn., August 17, having had the good fortune to obtain a pass to return North from the rebel States, reports the state of affairs in Memphis as almost beyond the power of imagination to conceive. His statement, nearly in his own words, is as follows: Owing to the sickness of my brother, who was one of the sufferers of the steamer Charmer, I was enabled to obtain a pass to carry him to his wife in the North, and but for it I would now, most probably, have been found in the rebel service. As it was, during my stay in Memphis I was forced to go through a course of drilling, one hour in the morning and two hours in the afternoon. Every man over sixteen and under sixty years of age, has to drill three hours every day. We used, in drilling, some old rejected United States muskets, which were obtained from New Orleans.

When about to leave Memphis, I was taken before a Justice of the Peace and sworn not to take up arms against the Confederate States of America, and in no manner to convey any information in regard to the army of the Confederate States of America, as to their strength, etc., or anything that could be used by the United States against them. I was then furnished with my pass and password, and, taking my sick brother, I started for the North, and after many trials, at last reached here in safety. Passes have been issued since the 1st of June, and the one furnished to me was numbered over 2,000—indicating that that number of people have left Memphis for the North within the last three months. I was subjected to the most stringent examination all along the route. Men who have lived in the city of Memphis for years, property owners and slave owners, have, in many cases, had their heads shaved, and been tarred and feathered and sent North, their only offense being that they were "damned Yankees," and of course "damned abolitionists at heart." I know of one case of a young man who was taken from his place of business, one half of his head, moustache and whiskers shaved, and tar and feathers put on in their place, and he was then shipped for the North, and all his property confiscated. His only offence was that he was a Yankee, and being a very handsome man, he was "too damned good looking for them." This is all done by a so-called Safety Committee, and sanctioned by a majority of the citizens. The Superintendent of a railroad—I forget his name—was attacked one day at the hotel by one of the Committee, and charged with being a Yankee and a Union man, and but for the interference of Sam Tate, President of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, he would have shared a similar fate as other Yankees. Mr. Tate sprang forward with a revolver in each hand, and swore to shoot the first man who laid hands on him. The mob was at last quieted, and the Superintendent suffered to pass unmolested. Such cases are of daily occurrence, and men whose only offence is that they are Yankees by birth, are subjected to the most outrageous insults and are refused passes to return North.

A Good Story.—The sharp things of Quakers are always good; and hence they tell the following story of the amiable Poet Whittier, who takes much interest in the war.

On a recent occasion he was traveling with a friend over a New Hampshire railroad, and during conversation with Mr. Whittier's friend, who is also a member of the Society of Friends, told the poet that he was on his way to contract for a lot of oak timber, which he knew would be used in building the gun-boats at Portsmouth, and asked him whether he thought it was exactly in consistence with the peace doctrines of the Quaker denomination. Without saying anything calculated to decide the question, the two arrived at their parting place, when Mr. Whittier, shaking his friend's hand, said: "Moses, if thee does furnish any of that oak timber thee spoke of, be sure that it is all sound."

A short time ago a man became so completely "wrapped in thought," that he was tied up, labelled, and sent off on the "train of ideas."

Further News by the Pony of the 5th.

Arrival of the Cortes.

The steamer Cortes, Capt. Tomas Huntington arrived at her dock in this city, on Friday evening at 10½ o'clock.

We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for files of exchanges, and to the Purser for the following memoranda and passenger list:

MEMORANDA.—Steamship Cortes, Thomas Huntington, Commander, left San Francisco Oct. 7th., at 4 P. M., crossed Columbia river bar on the 11th, at 8 A. M., and arrived at Portland same day, at 10½ P. M.

PASSENGERS.—J. M. Breck and family, A. Vandersen, J. Crawford, A. L. Stiles, L. W. Reno, G. Shindler, J. Cohn, W. B. Mead and family, G. N. Krause, A. Frankel, J. Hexter, J. Jacob, Mrs. L. F. Beatty, Miss L. F. Beatty, Miss Moffatt, P. Parker and wife, L. Miller, H. Allen, Mrs. I. C. Dean, A. G. Ridgway and wife, S. James, A. W. Adams, W. A. Snyder and wife, Mrs. M. Green, Z. F. Davis, M. Hardy, M. Tuft, (J. T. Watkins, Wells, Fargo & Co. messenger) and 53 others.

We have further news by the pony despatch received at Sacramento, Oct. 6.

St. Joseph, Sept. 27.—The Count de Paris and Duc de Chartres have received commissions as Captains. They are registered as Louis Philippe de Orleans and Robert de Orleans. They have been assigned as Aids to Gen. McClellan. They receive no compensation.

Fort Ocracoke, situated seaward facing Barron Island, was destroyed by the rebels. It is octagon shaped; contains four shell-rooms twenty-five feet square. In the centre is a large bomb-proof, one hundred feet square, within which is the magazine. Above the magazine, on each side, are four large tanks for water, but there is none in the fort. The fort is constructed with great care, of barrels of sand, covered with earth turf. The inner fronting is bomb-proof, is constructed of heavy pine timber platforms for twenty guns, which was partly destroyed by fire. The gun-carriages were all burned. There are in the fort forty-eight inch navy shell-guns, and fourteen long eight-inch thirty-two pounders.

The New York Republican State Central Committee met at Albany, on the 24th ult., and passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That, in the opinion of this Committee, 500,000 men should be enrolled for the war at the earliest practicable day. This State should furnish 100,000 of that number. That the Executive Committee be instructed to adopt most rigorous measures, by large public meetings, through the press, and otherwise, to arouse the people to the importance of supporting the Government with men and money in the present emergency.

The President contradicts the rumor that Gen. Fremont is to be removed.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 24.—Great activity prevails in the movement of troops towards Lexington, Missouri.

Washington, Sept. 24.—It is estimated that two hundred slaves belonging to rebel Virginians have been made free men here, and are now at work on entrenchments, or are at liberty.

An outbreak occurred at the Penitentiary in Jefferson City, on the 25th. The convicts were fired on and killed; four escaped.

It is reported that Montgomery, on Friday last, attacked Osceola, Missouri, and burned the town, shelling it, and was then repulsed by a large force of rebels.

Later reports state that McCulloch and Price had formed a junction and were within twelve miles of Georgetown.

The news of the fall of Lexington gives the rebels great aid and comfort.

From the best information it is supposed, that the rebel troops about Washington amount to 175,000 men.

Gen. Fremont made a requisition upon the War Department for $500,000 for purchases in St. Louis of ordnance and ordnance stores, to be paid immediately. The Ordnance Bureau says that vouchers sent by Fremont for many articles are exorbitant. Fremont replied to accusations of extravagance in a statement which has not been made public yet.

Nearly $34,000,000 are already subscribed for the 7 3-10 per cent. loan.

In response to the spirit of Gen. McClellan's order, the rebel Generals are endeavoring to stop their pickets from firing upon ours. They have two men now under arrest for disobedience.

Pierce Butler will be released if he takes the oath of allegiance. He hesitates to do so, because of holding an interest in a large estate for a sister in Georgia. He fears a confiscation of the property.

Lowe made a balloon ascension from our line on the morning of the 25th. He was fired upon by the enemy, but no shots were effective.

Washington, Sept. 23.—A letter from Paris, received to-day, says that the French Government has respectfully declined to inform the Mexican Minister of the object of the fleet to be sent to Mexico, saying that the Government of the latter will be duly apprised of it through the French Minister. So far as appears from the letter, the movement of France and England is not necessarily hostile.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 23.—It is said that John C. Breckinridge and William Preston escaped from here through Montgomery county on Friday.

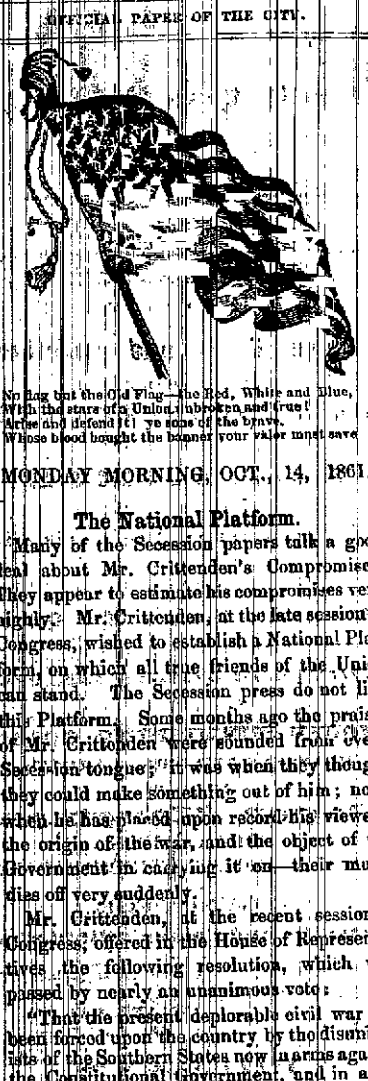
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union, unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, OCT., 14, 1861.

The National Platform.

Many of the Secession papers talk a good deal about Mr. Crittenden's Compromises. They appear to estimate his compromises very highly. Mr. Crittenden, at the late session of Congress, wished to establish a National Platform, on which all true friends of the Union can stand. The Secession press do not like this Platform. Some months ago the praises of Mr. Crittenden were sounded from every Secession tongue; it was when they thought they could make something out of him; now, when he has placed upon record his views of the origin of the war, and the object of the Government in carrying it on—their music dies off very suddenly.

Mr. Crittenden, at the recent session of Congress, offered in the House of Representatives the following resolution, which was passed by nearly an unanimous vote:

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital: that in this National emergency Congress, banishing all feeling of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights of established institutions of these States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

Thus, it will be seen, that this resolution embodies a platform which should satisfy all patriotic and Union-loving men. The Government is now assailed by armed and desperate rebels, who are fighting for its destruction. It is the duty of all good citizens, without regard to party, to rush to the defense of the Constitution and the Union. If there is not sense and patriotism enough in the mass of the people to meet the present emergency with united action, the days of our National existence are numbered.

That faithful old democratic organ, the Boston Post, says truly that "party men and party measures are out of place now." The contest is for the Union—the preservation of the present form of government, and no party cabal and contention should be permitted to endanger the issue. We believe that the hearts of the people are true, and that, fully appreciating the critical condition of the country, they will rise above the party calls which are being made, and know no party but the country, and no platform but the Union.

The following came by the pony of the 5th:

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 26.—Gen. Lane has issued a proclamation to the citizens of Western Missouri, in which, after saying for what purpose he was there, and urging those in arms against the Government to disperse and come to him for protection in person and property, he uses the following language: "Should you, however, disregard my advice, stern visitations of war will be meted out to rebels and their allies. I shall then be convinced your crying for protection is a sham; and rest assured, traitors, when caught, shall receive traitors' doom. The cup of mercy has been exhausted. Treason, hereafter, will be treated as treason. The massacre of women and children by black-hearted traitors, lately, in burning the bridges on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, satisfies me that a traitor will perpetrate crimes which devils would shudder to commit. They shall be blotted from existence, and sent to that hell which yawns for their reception. The two roads are open to you, people of Western Missouri. Choose ye between them; the one leads you to peace and plenty—the other to destruction."

A "Secesher" on Rich Mountain, in Virginia, turned his back upon some of our men in an insulting attitude. A Hoosier seized his rifle and gave him a center shot, the ball entering his abdomen and coming out of his throat—of course killing him instantly. This statement was confirmed by a prisoner.

Delusion and Treason.

Editor Oregonian:—

Permit me to continue my remarks on the subject of "Delusion and Treason" among our people.

And what is the inference unavoidably to be drawn from the complaint that the President called on the States for men to defend the capital and check the rebellion? I think it is that the president whose oath is: "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States," should have, regardless of this solemn promise, and "the act of Congress of the 28th of February, 1795, authorizing the president in case of invasion or of imminent danger to it, to call forth such number of militia most convenient to the scene of action as he might judge necessary," sat down quietly in the presidential chair until Jeff. Davis kicked him out of it, and having the capital in his possession, proclaimed himself dictator of the North and South. Such sympathizing with, and indorsement of rebellion is almost if not quite, rebellion itself. Such indorsement of robbery, piracy and treason, by condemning the President for resisting such, and preparing to defend the capital, renders a man as guilty of these crimes, as the man is guilty of murder who stands approvingly by and sees a murder committed. But this is not all; the American flag has in more than one instance been taken down against the earnest remonstrance of loyal citizens who hoisted it. And further; the flag of the Southern Confederation has been hoisted among us, and is now impudently waving in Longtom precinct in Lane county. What does all this mean? How can Americans in our enlightened Oregon be led to talk and act thus foolishly, and expose themselves peradventure to the awful vengeance of a sorely tried and exasperated government when the fearful day—the day of retribution shall come?

Sir, the cause of it is this: men have certain and strong appetites. The regular gambler will not play at chess or chequers as long as he can get cards. Some will not drink tea or coffee while they can get whiskey; and so it is with many men in Oregon in respect to literature; they will not read the Sentinel, Oregonian or Statesman while they can get the Advertiser or the Corvallis Union. This strange literary taste originated in this way: "The democratic party, for some years being governed by the slave power of the south, became identified with the south, and the slaves States were called the Democratic States. Lane was the leader of the democratic party in Oregon, and pledged himself and party to the south. This these men of singular literary taste are aware of and therefore, though the south is now a hot-bed of traitors and alligators, and Jo Lane deserves the hottest place among them, they indorse anything that indorses Jo Lane and the south in the consoling opinion that it is democratic. Hence the strange appetite; and thus it is that a class of people in Oregon are completely in the hands of a few miserable lying, treasonable papers in Oregon and California, being hardly conscious of how they stand in relation to their government—priding themselves on being reliable democrats, even at this late day. The word democracy is to them as the song of the African Honey-bird to the plundering bear, that often leads the unsuspecting beast into an infuriated swarm of hornets.

The subject will be continued in your next paper.

Daniel S. Dickenson, democrat, leads the Union ticket of New York for Governor. The New York Tribune says of the candidates upon this ticket, "they should be borne into power by such an outburst of enthusiasm as has no parallel in the annals of American politics."

The Raleigh Register says: "It is hardly possible to describe the terror of our people on account of the capture of Hatteras. Women and children are leaving and going into the country in all directions."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The number of rebel troops from Richmond to the Potomac at Leesburg, and direction of Aquia Creek and Mathias Point, may surely be put down at one hundred and seventy-five thousand. Fifty thousand of them were at Richmond three days ago, and another fifty thousand at Manassas, while the remaining thirty-five thousand are scattered along from that point to Munson's Hill, and from the vicinity of Noland's Ferry to Harper's Ferry; and on the Potomac, and south of Alexandria from the vicinity of Aquia Creek and Mathias Point.

The troops at Leesburg, and the militia, number about five thousand. There are also about five thousand in the vicinity of Noland's Ferry. The force at Fairfax Court-house is quite small. Generals Beauregard and Johnson have made this their headquarters.

BY TELEGRAPH!

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

LATEST BY PONY EXPRESS.

Dates to October 3d.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

YREKA, Oct. 9th.

The Pony arrived at Ruby Valley at 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon. The news is to Oct. 3d, as follows:

CAIRO, Sept. 29th.—Capt. Stewart and 75 cavalry, to-day encountered 40 rebel cavalry at Lucas' Bend, and pursued them into Jeff. Thompson's camp at Belmont, killing four, capturing five, and injuring several. No Federalists hurt.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 26th.

A dispatch says Gen. Sigel had arrived at Jefferson City on the 26th, and gone on by railroad with his forces.

It is reported that Ben McCullough has formed a junction with Price between Warrenburg and Georgetown; they have over 40,000 men.

The rebels have not got the money from the Lexington banks, as reported. It was safely secured before the fight.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 26th.

The advance movement of yesterday is regarded as of considerable importance.

Our army is supplied with excellent forage.

The 29th New York regiment went into Centreville, and occupied a position within two hundred and fifty feet of the rebel batteries. The Highlanders behaved with great gallantry. Griffin's battery was worked with great effect, and it is believed caused much disaster in the enemy's camp.

Fast day was observed with great propriety.

A New Yorker who deserted the rebels at Freestone, says the enemy is 10,000 strong, and 3,000 between here and Manassas, and a large number along the shore to Matthews. They have plenty of cannon and food.

Yesterday a Lieutenant from one of our regiments deserted and went to the rebels, giving them, it is supposed full information.

The President says no drafting for the army will be resorted to until the Eastern States furnish their full quota of 500,000 men.

A special from Washington says the rebels appeared in force on the Potomac opposite Great Falls to-day and opened with a battery of six pieces on McClellan's division. Both sides have been reinforced. Our batteries opened and the rebels were dispersed.

The Federals took possession of Lewiston this forenoon; rebels retreating after a skirmish.

FARTHER POINT, Oct. 1st.—The Great Eastern has arrived. The gale she encountered was fearful. Over twenty-five passengers sustained fractures from the tremendous rolling of the ship. The accident is mainly attributed to breaking the rudder.

General Mansfield has been appointed to command at Fortress Monroe, but Gen. Wool, whom he supercedes, has not been assigned to any other duty.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3d.—It is stated here that the rebels intend an immediate advance on Paducah.

CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9.—The Forest Theater, which was burned to a shell some ten days ago, was blown down by the storm yesterday. Two persons were killed and several injured.

The Richmond Enquirer says: "There is no truth in the rumor that Gen. A. Sidney Johnston, now in this city, had been ordered to the army of the Potomac. The probabilities are that he will be immediately sent to Missouri, with plenipotentiary authority to control all the military operations in the West." [Johnston is the officer who was in command at San Francisco, and whose removal was complained of by the Advertiser.]

Commodore Barron, taken prisoner at Hatteras Inlet, had on his person the uniform and buttons of the United States. When introduced to Com. Stringham, he said—"I have seen Com. Barron before," in a way which was very cutting.

Gen. Grant, who is in command of the troops about Cairo, is an experienced soldier, was educated at West Point, and is now thirty-eight years of age.

The Fashionable Gentleman.—Sir Philip Sydney is known to all readers of history as the fashionable English Gentleman, who flourished in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and who was so tidy in dress, and graceful in manner, that he almost captivated the Queen, and won enough of her affection to prompt her to call him one of Her "Jewels." Now we cannot vouch for all we read and hear, but we do know that neatness of dress and deportment of character has a very winning influence over all, and especially among the ladies; and if any one desires to imitate Sir Philip, let him step into the ONE PRICE STORE and secure himself a fashionable suit of those arrived by the last Steamer. Among the many articles now in vogue are the Paris Frocks, the London Coats, the New York Sacks, the Broadway Suits, the French Velvet Vests, the Opera Hats, and the New Style Scarfs. All the articles have been purchased low, and will be sold at small advance, and can be seen at HARKER'S, opposite Commercial Wharf.

CITY.

Death of Capt. G. W. Staples.—He died at the Pioneer Hotel, on Saturday morning, at half past one o'clock. A post mortem examination was held on the body at 10½ o'clock, by Drs. Wilson and Loryea, Drs. Watkins and Elwart being present. The ball was ascertained to have penetrated the cavity of the abdomen, a few lines below the breast bone, taking a course obliquely downwards, and to the left, piercing the momentum and cutting the mesentric artery, producing internal hemorrhage in the cavity of the abdomen; passing through the left ilium or haunch bone, and embedding itself in the muscles over the left hip, from which point it was cut out.

In Memoria.—For the last two days the flags in this city, and of the steamers and vessels in the river, were at half mast, in respect to the memory of the late Capt. Staples. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Masonic Hall, where the remains were deposited on Saturday. The hearse was followed by the members of the different Masonic Lodges and citizens. The ceremonies at the grave were in due masonic form.

Council.—Met October 11th, 1861. Present—Councilmen Hallock, Hull, King, Masters and White. Mr. King was elected President pro tem.

The recommendation of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, in the report relative to a sewer to drain the Public Square, that the City Surveyor survey and estimate the expense of building said sewer, was taken up and adopted.

The ordinance for the levying and collecting of city taxes was read second time.

Mr. Hallock moved that "one-half of one per cent." be stricken out and "four mills" inserted in place thereof.

Mr. King offered an amendment to the amendment, that "one mill" be inserted instead of four mills. Lost. The amendment of Mr. Hallock was then adopted.

On motion to fill blank in the Ordinance, the 1st of January, 1861, was inserted for the time in which the City Collector is to make his final returns.

The Ordinance was then read a third time and passed.

Mr. Hull introduced a resolution changing the grade of Alder street east of Front, which was adopted.

Warrants were ordered to be drawn in favor of Smith & Davis for the sum of $8 25, and J. H. Mitchell for $250, for one quarter's salary as City Attorney. Adjourned.

A Skirmish.—A skirmish occurred yesterday evening, on second street, between two individuals, when the city marshal arrived and marched the assailant to the city jail for the purpose of giving an explanation this morning before his honor the Recorder.

In Memoriam.—The following resolutions were adopted by the Masonic fraternity on the death of Capt. Geo. W. Staples:

Whereas, in the unerring and inscrutable Providence of the Supreme Architect of the Universe, we are called upon, by a sudden and fatal casualty, to part with our highly respected and much loved friend and brother, Geo. W. Staples, late Commander of the steamer Pacific—

Resolved, That we, and each of us, the representatives and members of the various lodges of Free and Accepted Masons of the City of Portland, Oregon City, Dalles and Fort Vancouver, now assembled for the purpose of paying the last funeral obsequies of the Fraternity to the memory of our deceased Brother, do hereby accept and lay to heart the solemn warning that "in the midst of life we are in death," and that by a closer walk with God, and a strict adherence to the admirable tenets of our profession, we may thereby be the better fitted and prepared to respond to the Gavel of the Supreme Grand Master, when it shall come to be our lot to join "the innumerable caravan," and tread the dark and lonely way that leads through death to eternity.

Resolved, That we will cherish the memory of our deceased Brother, as one every way worthy of our esteem and affection; as one of dauntless bearing and undoubted bravery in the presence of any and every danger, whose heart never throbbed in unison with any other than Truth and Justice, and whose hand was ever ready to relieve the wants of Virtue in distress. In his death our Fraternity loses an honorable member, Society an example of devotedness as a son, a husband and a parent, and the profession of which he was a member, one among the chief of those who have added an honorable lustre to the name of the American Mercantile Marine.

Resolved, That, to the widow and friends of the deceased, in their hour of affliction, we tender the assurance of our sincere condolence, and whatever of earthly comfort they can draw or experience, in their great trial, we would reverently commend them to "Him who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," as the rock of their defense, and the source of all true and lasting consolation.

Resolved, That the usual Masonic badge of mourning be worn for the space of thirty days, as an outward token of our sorrow, and that the Hall of the lodge in this City be hung in mourning for three months.

Resolved, That the Secretary transmit to the family of the deceased an authenticated copy of the foregoing resolutions.

Portland, Oct. 12th, 1861.

☞ Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrhoea, or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 535 California street, San Francisco. aug2d6m

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please inclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility Syphilis in all its stages Strictures, Gleet, Gravel Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs Throat, Nose and Eyes Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory Loss of Power General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes It matters not from what cause the disease originated however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor entirely vegetable causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected —a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures — Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, [illegible] their cases and remedial agent, and their [illegible] authenticated by a Notary Public. [illegible] imperatively [illegible] their publicity, and [illegible] their perusal [illegible] the attention of all afflicted [illegible]

CERTIFICATE —The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their suffering [illegible] It needful [illegible] as it has [illegible] to thus publicly express [illegible] sincere gratitude to Dr L. J Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms [illegible] to the vicious practices of [illegible] the passions [illegible] depressed in body and [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon [illegible] ordinary avocations of life I sought the advice of [illegible] sicians who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas after a few weeks, and in some instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unspeakable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms [illegible] more alarming in their torture; and being told by [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the brain [illegible] would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever [illegible] my health strength and energy and as a last [illegible] with but a faint hope called upon Dr Czapkay, who [illegible] examining my case prescribed some medicine which [illegible] instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness [illegible] head Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself entirely under his care, and by a strict [illegible] his directions and advice, my head became clear [illegible] collected the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my [illegible] body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings the self-distrust and want of [illegible] in others the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay and recommend him to all who may stand in need of [illegible] medical advice being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will be [illegible]

DR L. J CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir: I have [illegible] last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel very well, except that I have not [illegible] got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible] It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I [illegible] your institute with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely and never thought you would be able to [illegible] perfectly but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and also [illegible] nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] rything Now that you know what I [illegible] judge of my satisfaction at my complete [illegible] symptoms, and the removal of those [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] page of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness I can hardly tell you which is greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not [illegible] got my strength, I feel as well as any man [illegible]

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] think myself cheaply cured If you think [illegible] benefited, you may put this letter in the [illegible] believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS [illegible]

Thankfulness is the incentive to [illegible]

CERTIFICATE —Prompted by an honest [illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] mendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but [illegible] humanity also About two years ago, I suddenly [illegible] causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit [illegible] which owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment and [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting it, was [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of physician I was frequently, while in a small [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from [illegible] mies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state, and having previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by rec[illegible] upon Dr L J Czapkay I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his [illegible] of which however he at once undertook my [illegible] the blessing of God, I was once more restored to [illegible] health Unable to reward him for the [illegible] present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may [illegible] cian in whom every confidence can be placed.
